DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

1. An audio player, as seen in figures 3 and 4 and recited in claims 1-50, with integrated wireless transceiver for communication with a mobile phone.
2. An audio player, as seen in figures 6 and 7 and recited in claims 51-55, with connection to a wireless earphone for communication with a mobile phone.

The species are independent or distinct because they are not connected in design, operation or effect. An audio player using an internal wireless transceiver requires none of the logic or considerations needed to establish communication with an external wireless transceiver housed in an external earphone, hence a lack of connection in design and operation. With regards to the lattermost prong of independence, an audio player with internal transceiver is capable of operating entirely without an external wireless earphone, such that the effect of the two apparatuses bifurcates.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

A telephone call was made to Eugene Mar, Reg. No. 25,893, on 11 July 2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
